

THE FIRE LECTURE 2019

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF FIREFIGHTERS

Tuesday 30th April

at

The Aviva Building, Saint Helen's, 1 Undershaft, London EC3P 3DQ

6.30pm – 9.30pm

TO GIVE A LECTURE ON

FUTURE FIRE POLICY – THE WAY FORWARD?

By

James Pauley

CEO National Fire Protection Association

&

Roy Wilsher OBE QFSM

Chair U.K. National Fire Chiefs Council

This lecture will help delegates to understand what is necessary to develop a national fire safety policy and is recognised for Continuous Professional Development (CPD hours).

Jim Pauley, President/CEO of the National Fire Protection Association will be giving the keynote address based on the fire and life safety ecosystem developed by the NFPA offering that as a model.

Roy Wilsher, Chair of the National Fire Chiefs Council will be discussing a practical way forward to deal with the necessary changes exemplified by the Grenfell tragedy.

CPD credits are available to members of the IFE, IRM, IFPO, IFSM, RIBA

To order tickets go to:
www.wcoff.org